

"AMERICAN BEAUTIES" AND "DADDY" AT SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TO-NIGHT--THURSDAY

Packard, The Cartoonist Is Coming.

A large and appreciative audience heard Dr. William Forkell, Monday evening in his lecture "When Adam Went To School." This was the third number of the Lyceum course. The Parent Teachers Association is backing this course and it is up to the parents of the children and the friends of the school to get behind it and make it a success. Let's do this for our town and school.

The next number will be Packard, the Cartoonist. He is world-known and an entertainer of wonderful fame. The date will be announced later. Everybody talk Packard, and then everybody will see Packard. This is going to be an entertainment where standing room will be at a premium.

See and hear Packard, the Cartoonist.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the good people of Dickson for the many kind acts and words of sympathy during the illness and death of my husband and especially do I want to thank the members of the B. of L. E. and I. O. O. F. for the assistance rendered and also those who so willingly tendered the use of their automobiles at the funeral. May the Lord bless you all in my prayer.—Mrs. Ella Lovell.

STRAYED—Yellow border marked under bit in left ear, under bit and crop in right, also, label in left ear—J. W. Field. Reward of $5 for her return or information as to her whereabouts. J. W. Field, Dickson, R. 4.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

Notwithstanding the fact that sickness kept at home some of the teachers and members of the Sabbath School the attendance was good at the last session, Feb. 2. It should be still better. All are invited to attend at the morning hour, 9:45. The only other service is that of the Young People's Society at 7 p. m. This is also, for the whole congregation.

On Feb. 2, the pastor will be at St. Paul and the regular services will be held beginning with Sunday School at 10 o'clock.

Calls are coming for an immediate remittance of missionary contributions. The annual apportionment has been sent to both churches and they are urged to "go over the top." Of course this will be done but it should not be put off. At once and all together raise this fund, meet these objections and round out the best year's record in both churches.

DEATHS.

J. T. the one-year old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Greer, died Sunday morning at their home on Piney, after a brief illness of influenza. The remains were interred Sunday afternoon in the neighborhood burying ground.

News was received here Monday of the death of Walter Corlew, aged about 40 years, at his home in Chestnut County, on Harpeth River. He was related to the Corlew's in this county. He is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of Mrs. Florence Fussell, of Jones' Creek, also by three children.

The 8 year old son of W. A. Tutor, died at their home, the Payne place, just west of Dickson last Friday night. His remains were shipped Saturday morning to their former home, at Martin, Tenn. for interment. The whole family have been stricken with the same disease, but are reported better.

Mrs. J. M. Dowden, of Garner's Creek, died Sunday morning at her home of tuberculosis, of which she had been afflicted for several years. Deceased is about 45 years of age, and was a most estimable lady. She was a daughter of "Uncle" Bobbie Steele, of Garner's Creek. Her remains were interred Sunday afternoon in the family graveyard, after funeral services at the grave.

Mr. Ezra Lovell, aged 41 years, died at his home here Sunday morning, after an illness of a few days of influenza pneumonia. For several years he has been employed on the Centerville Branch Railroad, as engineer and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the residence conducted by Elder I. B. Bradley. He was a member of the B. of L. E. and I. O. O. F., the latter organization having charge of the service at the grave. He is survived by a wife, parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lovell, Colesburg, and brother, Emory Lovell, Birmingham, Ala.

Juanita Ernestine, the two year and six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harris, of Charlotte, died Friday night of last week at a Nashville hospital, of influenza. The little remains were brought here Saturday night and were interred Sunday afternoon in Union Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Omar Charles, of Charlotte. The precious little girl had been sick two weeks prior to her death. Everything that skilled physician and tender and loving hands could do for her, was done, but all was in vain. She was finally removed from her home to Nashville for treatment. She continued to grow worse until death relieved her of her suffering.

Garner's Creek

We have to chronicle the death of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Poston, on Monday, of last week. God, in his goodness, sent them on Thursday a little daughter to help fill the vacant place.

Jeff Springer has returned from Missouri, where he has been visiting friends, and is well pleased with the country.

Mrs. Dowden who has been sick so long with consumption was laid to rest Sunday. Her husband and children have the sympathy of the whole community.

CARD OF THANKS.

We thank the good people of Dickson for their kindness during the illness of our family and the death of our darling little girl. Also with sincere love to those who were so good, waiting with willing hands to do all they could during the sickness and death in my father's family. May we all be blessed with blessings from on high that we may live true and faithful in this life and on the morning of the resurrection raise us up and save us in a world that has no end. WILL BRUCE.

WANTED—Pop-corn. See B. B. Underhill, Dickson.

Theda Bara Not a Shopper

Miss Theda Bara, the William Fox screen star who is soon to be seen in a William Fox Theda Bara Super Production, "THE SOUL OF BUDDHA," which was written by the famous actress herself, and directed by J. Gordon Edwards, acknowledges that she hates to shop. In explaining why she personally does not visit all the large establishments as others of her sex delight in doing, Miss Bara said:

"The trouble is that I just can't take shopping seriously and no matter when I have started out for a certain thing, come home with something else. One day I went out with a shopping list prepared including shoes, veils and hooks and eyes. Did I bring them home? I did not. Instead what I did bring home would do credit to a small boy—a fancy bird cage, a beautiful picture frame and nine kinds of perfume.

On another occasion while in St. Augustine, Florida, I admired a beautiful pearl necklace that was displayed in the window of a jeweler. I went inside and inquired the price of the ornament. It was in five figures. . . ."

That Miss Bara has wonderful taste in her selections when she does shop, is shown in her dresses in "THE SOUL OF BUDDHA," which comes to the Patriot Theatre Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

Baptist Notes

Rev. R. M. Hastings, of McKwen, will preach at the First Baptist Church next Sunday, Feb. 2 morning and evening.

Letter from Hubert C. Stacy.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 21, 1919.—To my many friends in Tennessee: As I am at leisure I take pleasure in writing a few lines to the Herald and to my Dickson County friends. Will say that I liked army life till I was moved to the state of Virginia. I want to say to my friends if you ever go visiting don't come to the state of Virginia, and especially to Newport News, for this place would give anybody the blues. Well, I have not been in the service very long, but I will be just as glad to get out as if I had went over sea. I passed the over-sea examination, but didn't go across. Don't know whether I was lucky or unlucky, but from what I can hear, I was lucky. I heard that Warren Donaldson and Less Fussell were discharged and were back at home. Think I will be discharged in a few days. Hope it won't be long before we can all come home and live in peace. I must close by saying, if anyone wants to write to me my address is: Priv. Hubert C. Stacy, Port Utilities Detachment Co., Camp Hill, Newport News, Va.
